E. Outreach Activities: Brief Descriptions of Activities Performed in the Last Year (Supplemental Recruitment Forms are included in Appendix 2)

I. Menu Item #5: Internship Program:
(Supplemental Recruitment Forms included in Appendix 2a)

Located near the campus of Kansas State University, in Manhattan Kansas, Manhattan Broadcasting Company offers selected internships for those interested in broadcasting. The internship is designed to offer interested parties "hands on" experience with specific responsibilities in the areas of broadcasting in which they have an interest. Examples of internships being offered include: Sales and Marketing, News, Sports, Promotions, Digital and on air Production. Manhattan Broadcasting also works in conjunction with Kansas State University for students to also obtain college credit by enrolling in the K-State internship program which is offered by the school of Journalism . The hours may vary predicated on the number of credits the student intends to earn. All internships are on a credit or monetary basis, which is determined by Manhattan Broadcasting Company prior to the internship commencing.

II. Menu Item #10: Participation in at least four events or Programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting:

Manhattan Broadcasting Company, for several years, has offered a Program Sponsored by Educational Institutions for students exploring careers in broadcasting. The program gives high school and or college students the opportunity to observe radio station personnel in their actual work environment. Students have the opportunity to select which radio station at Manhattan Broadcasting they wish to observe station personnel on the job. The Program is coordinated with Educational Institutions within Manhattan Broadcasting's coverage area to give students a snapshot view of their particular area of interest as well as overall station operation. This program is offered at the beginning of fall, spring, and summer classes. Manhattan Broadcasting Company also offers guided tours to groups, organizations and others with an interest in broadcasting. The Manhattan Broadcasting management staff do speak to area schools and civic organizations.

III. Menu Item #2: Hosting Job Fairs:
(Supplemental Recruitment Forms included in Appendix 2c)

Manhattan Broadcasting Company hosts a job fair every year in which station management are present to discuss careers in broadcasting. During the job fair Manhattan Broadcasting provides "fact sheets" describing the different job opportunities available at Manhattan Broadcasting. Specific positions include; Marketing Consultant, Sales Assistant, News Director, Program Director, Traffic Director, Production Director, Programming, Digital Marketing, Sales Manager, and Disc Jockey. Those in attendance have the opportunity to meet with station management to discuss their specific job interest. During this job fair, participants also have the opportunity to inquire about part time job positions and internships as well. During the year, Manhattan Broadcasting periodically participates in job fairs hosted by both the A.Q. Miller School of Journalism and Mass Communications at Kansas State University, and the Kansas Association of Broadcasters. During the job fairs Manhattan Broadcasting management personnel are in attendance to answer questions for those attending the job fair.
